Teach the Children to Save Money.

It is often and truthfully said that a penny savod le a penny made. The foundation of many of the greatest fortunes was begun by saving a penny. The habit of saving is one of the best that can be formed. Every child should be taught to save something every week. The satisfaction of counting these pennies when the bank is emptied is one of the pleasures that we never forfat; perhaps every one of use can remember the thrill of joy we had when we emptied the contents of the bank on the table and counted and recounted this mountain of wealth; how eager we were to tell our little friends the amount of our great fortune, and raced with them in refilling the bank. To bring this pleasure within the reach of every dhild and help the forming of the penny-saving habit, Messrs, Scott & Browne 408 Pearl street, New York the manufacturers of Scott's Emission, are offering to send to any address, for 10 cents, a beautiful little Sarings Bank; each bank contains and get one.

High Class Vaudeville and Motion

Pictures.

Crowded houses at the Broadway theater proves the fact that theater—goess appreciate a good show at a minimum price. Any number of people have remarked: "How can they stree such a big show for the price?" Answer: The large seating capacity of the Broadway theater enables them to play to large financial returns, therefore they can afford to play big, high salaried acts. And, speaking of big sacts, an act that is booked in the near future requires a special baggage carto carry their scenery, trunks and effects. No act is too big to change the middle of the week that plays the Broadway.

And a postlarity strengtheau to the same and a millionaire.

Another popularity strengthener for readeville will open at Monday matings for three days, headed by the of the fear royelty acts in vanifolic, ite Chamberlaine, lasso experts. All kinds Chamberlains, lasso experts. All 8 hos of tricks and stunts are performed by this clever team; in fact, some of the lasso work seems almost improvable.

Madell and Corbley have an act which always wins them pienty of appliance. Miss Corbley's character changes and Mr. Madell's saxaphone soles are features in their futny skit entitled "Summer Boarders and Some R-Not."

Nible and Reily, the cheer-up come-Niblo and Reily, the cheer-up comedians, are some singers and some more steppers, while Rowland, the brainstorm juggler, is always a scream.

The attention of theatergoers is called to the fact that there are two shows every evening, the first starting at 7 o'clock and the second at 8.45. Matiness start at 2.30. All new motion pictures, featuring Young Deer's Bravery.

BREED THEATER.

A Daughter of the Sioux, Thrilling Indian Drama.

Indians, Indians, Indians, a whole picture full of real Sioux warriors and taken on the plains of western Nebraska. Such is the character of the feature picture at the Breed theater this week. This picture is entitled A Daughter of the Sloux and is absolute-Daughter of the Sioux and is absoluteby authentic as to scenery, costumes and the like, making it atmospherically correct in every detail. Here is a picture that is overflowing with interest and Indians, these genuine Sloux being accompanied by the services of enlisted United States regulars.
There is a tremopadous story of the days of the early elxtles, dealing with the effort to civilize the western plains preparatory to opening them up for In the massacre that followed two little Indians are adopted by the white army leader, who realized he is responsible for their being left without parents. They are brought to Washington and while there word comes to the effect that war has again broken out among their race and the white and the their race and the whites, and the Daughter of the Sioux and her brother play Indian spy and secure papers from the whites which enables the Indians to get a footbold, but the entire band is oppured, including the daughter and beaught to the instice but a ter, and brought to face justice, but a misdirected builter enters her breast and the government is cheated out of bringing her to her punishment. The picture is grandly impressive and the THE AUDITORIUM.

A complete production in itself is the feature act. The Imperial Musical the feature act. The Imperial Musical Trio, at this popular playhouse this week, carrying all its own scenery and electrical effects, which are very elaborate. The musical feature of this act is Miss May De Haue, a famous cornetist, whose double and triple tongue playing is far above the average of her sex. Many different instruments are used by this troupe of clever musicians and they also introduce many changes of stunning costumes which gives them the title of Fashion-plate Instrumentalists.

The Gilmore Sisters, otherwise known as the Ranche girls, introduce some next dencing and melodious singing which will win them much applicance.

TO PENSION OFFICERS. Nearly Three Hundred Connecticut Men Eligible.

The letters of surviving officers of volunteers in the Civil war which are being received by Connecticut senators and congressmen indicate keen desire in the proposition to put all volunteer officers now living on the retired list of the army at half pay on the part of those officers living in Connecticut says a Washington despatch. The plan in general, is to go through the list of officers of volunteers in the Civil war and from it compile a new retired list of those now living and place them on the usual retired pay of their rank, the sum received by them to be in lieu of any pension now being drawn by them or which in future they might seek to obtain.

The number of these officers is growing less all the time and it is figured by the supporters of the plan, which has taken several different forms at this end that the schem would not entail a very severe drai on the national treasury and would be a means of paying somewhat of the debt the country owes to these men. There are two or three hundred of them in Connecticut and they are interesting themselves actively in the

Miss M. C. Adles will be in Norwich under the terms of which every officer and enlisted man, also, would be placed on what would be known as 'The Civil War Volunteers' Retired "The Civil War Volunteers' Retired List" and draw $30 a month from the government, whether incapacitated or not, and in piace of any pension now being drawn where they are pensioners. This is rather too broad a proposition, though under the terms of the dependent and old age pension acts and other provisions for pensions comparatively few veterans are now shut out from receiving something from the government but the retiring officers'

ACUTE SKIN TORMENT

"My hands and arms, right up to the elbows, broke out with large blisters, some an inch across. I need not tell any sufferer from distressing skin complaints what I went through. The irritation almost drove me mad. I became an out-patient of a Londen hospital and after a fortnight's attendance I was seen by a skin specialist who told me the complaint was psoriasis. The irritation was not allayed at all. Later the disease took a more serious form, affecting my neck and face as well as my hands and arms. My neck was covered and sometimes my eyes were so badly swollen that I could acarcely see. Irritation is too mild a word to describe my suffering, it was excruciating agony. Irritation is too mild a word to describe my suffering, it was excruciating agony. I obtained some Cuticura Soap, Cuticura Resolvent and Cuticura Ointment and was especially pleased with the Ointment, which immediately allayed the itching and caused the sores to heal steadily and surely. In three weeks I was completely cured and there has been no return of the complaint. Actuar Duncan, Bridgend Wales, Jan 16, 1900. Cutioners sold by druggists everywhere. NOTICE!

I fold my hands in hers and pray My prayer to her each night. I know like that they'll go away And get to God all right. And then I feel her soft check brush Against my sleepy eyes. And through the big night-nersery's hush I hear her lullables.

"Sleep, now," she sings, "some boys, I know,"
Have mothers all the day—
But when the Shadows rise they go,
And I, my son, can stay!"

Though all the Black Things creet.
Yet every night she comes to me
And guards me whilst I sleep.
